what's news on fruitville

the latest from Bethany

Hello to everyone at 1800 Fruitville and congratulations on almost making it through to April 15th. Whatever you call it - Tax Season; Busy Season; The Long, Hard, Boring Months at the Beginning of the Year, etc. - it's ALMOST OVER and Spring is in the air!

Fiesta!

For some of the team, April 15th is a BIG deal. For others, it's a Wednesday. In any case, it's a great excuse to deck yourself out in RKL logo wear and eat Mexican food in the Training Room while speaking broken Spanish. No matter how you feel about April 15th, we'll give you a reason to party down and have a good time.

The Fiesta will continue until the crowd gets bored of "Fiesta-ing," but I hear murmurs of the party continuing on later in the day at various restaurants and bars. So, be sure to come to the Fiesta and find out if you want to jump in on some of the impromptu activities.

HELP! My Computer is Broken!

I wanted to take a minute to remind everyone that Danielle Bidus joined the HelpDesk in March. I have enjoyed getting to know Danielle, as I have e-mailed the HelpDesk no less than 14 times since her arrival (my fault, not theirs). I can personally attest that Danielle knows her stuff and doesn't even make you feel stupid as she fixes what you broke. Danielle can best be located by e-mailing the HelpDesk. Or, you can stand in the middle of the 2nd floor and yell "HELP" loudly, as I did last Thursday. But that is not always appreciated. Welcome, Danielle!

HELP! Kelly is Gone!

Also, many of you have noticed that I am behind in my paperwork and overly stressed and disorganized since Kelly left. That was to be expected, as I was never really that organized, but she really covered it well. Hang in there. We have filled her position and her replacement, Lindsey Howe, will start on Monday. I will be bringing her around to meet everyone, so hold your paperwork and miscellaneous requests a few more days, please.

HELP! My Logo Wear is Old & Nasty!

So, if you are a little disappointed when you go to dig out your logo wear for the Fiesta, don't freak out.

RKL's Company Store will be open Wednesday, April 15 through Wednesday, April 29. Ed has, again, generously approved a $100 allowance for each team member to purchase merchandise during the assigned two-week period. I have inside intel that this year's store is the best ever, so make sure you visit it in the 3rd floor in "The New One" Conference Room. You can order at the store or online.

Softball Anyone?

For those new to RKL, consider this your invitation to play on our softball team. The team starts playing in June, competing against other professional teams (and by "professional" - I mean bankers, attorneys, etc. - not "PROFESSIONAL"). If you have played softball someplace other than 5th grade gym class, and think you can still play without hurting yourself, you should get involved. If you like cheering for people that play, or like hanging out at bars eating junkfood, you should go to the game with me and watch and then head to the bar. Watch for a detailed recruiting e-mail coming soon from the Team Captain, Jeremy "J-Witty" Witmer.

Building Items

A few quick items from our Office Manager/Jeep Master, Dani Bailey:

First - they are still working on fixing the fence in the parking lot, so please do not park in the area circled on the map.

Also - the landscaping company will be around starting in a week or two to do the annual mulching, edging, and flowers. For those of you that loved the pink pansies (that's you, Ed Monborne!), we will certainly make sure there is an abundance of beautiful flowers.

Here's What's Coming Down the Pike...

- April 15th - Mexican Fiesta in Training Room (Noon)
 - April 22nd - Administrative Professional Luncheon in the Training Room
 - May 25th - Office Closed for Memorial Day
 - June 17th - Lancaster Young Professionals Trip to Orioles vs. Phillies (in Philly)
