

Salvage

from the collection The Woman Who Gave Birth to Rabbits

Emma Donoghue is the author of international bestseller Room, her screen adaptation of which was nominated for four Academy Awards. From her collection of stories, The Woman Who Gave Birth to Rabbits, "Salvage" is based on the life of linguist and philanthropist Anna Gurney.

Despite being bound to a wheelchair, Anna is spurred to action when she and cousin Sarah Buxton witness the sinking of a ship on the rough waters of the English Channel. From the storm-swept shoreline, Anna attempts to orchestrate a heroic rescue effort with unexpected results.

Recorded Books is the largest independent publisher of unabridged audiobooks and provider of digital content to the library, school, and retail markets. The company owns an exclusive catalog of thousands of audiobook titles narrated by professional, award-winning actors.
